Safety Officers

Purpose of roles

To enhance and expand the Trust's safety coverage across all five branches

Qualifications, Experience and Skills

- A NEBOSH (National General Certificate in Occupational Health and Safety), or equivalent
- A demonstrated understanding of health and safety policy implementation
- Strong oral and written communication skills, with a demonstrated ability to communicate with stakeholders at all levels
- An ability to produce and deliver effective presentations and training would be desirable
- A commitment to excellence in documentation and record keeping
- A good understanding of relevant UK health and safety regulations and legislation
- Experience with risk management and risk assessments
- A willingness to work closely with other members of the Trust's workforce to ensure that safety standards are being met
- An understanding of the principles of conservation and a personal commitment to the principles of environmental sustainability

Resources Required

- Home computing facilities including broadband internet access, email, word processing, spreadsheet and printer
- Landline and mobile phone

Note: This is a voluntary role within WBCT, which is a registered charity. The Trust remunerates the legitimate business expenses of its volunteers.

For more information, please email info@wbct.org.uk